Custody, courts and Indian children: The great myth of the Indian Child Welfare Act

By Niki Cleary

In Native America it's a well-known "fact". So well-known that native parents tell their non-native spouses, families teach it to their pregnant family members, and even well intentioned passers-by who overhear a tribal court case tell each other; if the custody of an Indian child is at stake, then ICWA (the Indian Child Welfare Act) means that the Indian parent will automatically win. This oft bandied wisdom is not entirely true.

Tulalip Board of Directors Reports

By Niki Cleary

In an effort to bring our citizens the most current information about our government, the See-Yaht-Sub staff will be asking our Board to sit down after both General Council meetings and regular Board Meetings to chat about the decisions that affect our Tribe.

After the February 7th Regular Board Meeting we interviewed Theresa Sheldon. Deborah Parker was unavailable due to a scheduling conflict. No other Board of Directors responded to the request for an interview.

Services Committee focuses on improving programs

Theresa Sheldon

By Niki Cleary

The Services Committee addressed a number of issues, some confidential, during the February Board Meetings. Theresa Sheldon explained that some long term projects are coming to a close, and she described the services that Tulalip citizens can look forward to in the near future.

Community Needs Assessment

“What was super exciting is our Community Needs Assessment,” said Sheldon. “Our Grants Department, Lillian Henry, Denise Brand and Chenoa Henry are going to do an inventory of Tulalip’s services, a community needs assessment and an evaluation of strengths and weaknesses, which they’ll boil down to a comprehensive report.”

The final product will include a list of tribal departments and what they offer to tribal members, and the department’s evaluation of their work. The Grants Department will compare that to the community perception of the same program and see where there is a mismatch.

“They’re going to do different types of surveys,” Sheldon continued, “online surveys, handwritten surveys and focus groups. They’re recruiting existing tribal employees to conduct the surveys and are working with enrollment to keep a record of who participated.

“I’m excited because it gives us a report card on our programs. The great thing about the assessment is they won’t just gather information, they’ll also create a plan to address the concerns and suggestions that come from the survey. I encourage our people to take the time to contribute your thoughts in a meaningful way so we can make progress. If you don’t participate,” she smiled, “don’t complain.”

For more information about the Community Needs Assessment, keep your eyes peeled for survey stations at community events, check for information in the See-Yaht-Sub or contact Denise Brand, dbrand@tulaliptribes-nsn.gov, or Chenoa

Henry chenry@tulaliptribes-nsn.gov.

Mental Wellness Programs

Wages for mental health professionals has come before the Board several times and has even been brought up at General Council meetings. Sherry Guzman, often the champion for higher wages, argues that without competitive wages, the tribe limits the talent pool who will apply for Tulalip mental health and social services jobs. During General Council Meetings Guzman has argued that until Tulalip pays higher wages, health and human services departments will continue to see high turnover of employees simply because people are not being paid what they are worth. A wage proposal was brought before the board at the February meeting.

“Our Tulalip citizens deserve qualified and culturally competent mental wellness professionals to serve our communities, children, adolescents, adults and families,” stated Sheldon. “This brings our Mental Wellness and Chemical Dependency professionals’ pay up to standard, unfortunately, they were paid below standard. The cost to pay for this comes from our Self-Governance Grant.”

The Stanwood Property, now known as the Healing Lodge, is nearing completion. This group home is transitional housing for people leaving treatment, who would like to continue learning coping techniques, life skills and other strategies for staying clean and sober.

“Diane Henry is our new Manager of the Healing Lodge,” said Sheldon. “She will begin taking people in March, the doors will open with only three people, but eventually we’ll add up to 16 residents. If you have any questions about what’s required to live there, please contact Diane at dianehenry@tulaliptribes-nsn.gov and she can share their newly approved eligibility requirements.”

Court and Code Revisions

“We approved one pro-tem appointment for Tribal Court,” Sheldon explained. “A pro-tem judge is an on-call judge. Currently our Tulalip Court only has two full-time judges who are expected to hear all cases, traffic, family court, guardianship, custody, criminal and civil cases. It’s important to have pro-tem judges who can be scheduled to allow for vacations, or to keep us up to date when we have a high volume of cases, that way people aren’t waiting months for a court date.”

Sheldon continued, explaining some of the procedures that citizens may be unaware of.

“If you are ever in court and feel that a judge is inappropriate in any way, if you feel that the judge is demeaning or derogatory when they talk about your case, you are able to file a complaint to our Chief Judge. She will review the audio and investigate the judge's conduct to ensure the judge behaved appropriately."

Sheldon also gave a quick update on the Probation Program, describing a new home monitoring system that will reduce costs and help prevent repeat offenders from Driving Under the Influence (DUI). "People with multiple DUI offenses will get a SCRAM Bracelet," she explained. "It can read whether you have alcohol in your system and provide more cost effective GPS monitoring."

According to the website www.scramsystems.com, the bracelet is used for high risk DUI alcohol offenders and combines 24/7 alcohol testing with an option for house arrest monitoring in the same device.

Sheldon was happy to announce that the draft Youth Code, which had been placed online for public review and comment, is now in the final stages of revision.

"It's significant because it highlights department and employee changes, as well as reporting and investigation of abuse and neglect. We were missing those pieces. The changes also have a major focus on prevention and getting parents access to help, instead of just removing a child."

Lastly, the Luella Jones Good Samaritan Law was re-adopted.

"It slipped through the cracks and wasn't sent to the BIA," said Sheldon. "We had to re-adopt the Resolution, and now it's officially on record."

Sheldon encouraged Tulalip Citizens to keep in contact with the Board of Directors and to both submit suggestions and request information from Tulalip's elected leadership.

"We are here to help and assist in making positive change for the betterment of all Tulalips." She said.

Led by Miles’ near triple-double and sharp shooting of Miranda and Jones, Hawks defeat Hurricanes 70-62

The Tulalip Heritage Hawks (14-5) played at the home gym of the Mt. Vernon Christian Hurricanes (10-11) on Thursday, February 12. Winner of this game would finish as the 2nd place team in the 1B district tournament and host a Tri-District tournament game on Saturday, February 14. The Hawks were coming off a convincing 26 point win just two days earlier over the Cedar Park Christian Lions and looking to carry their momentum into the Hurricane’s home gym.

It only took a couple minutes into the opening quarter for the Hawks to showcase their skill set and team cohesion. Down 1-3 after the first several possession, the Hawks tightened things up on both ends of the court and went on an impressive 18-3 run that spanned the better part of five minutes. The Hawks were forcing turnovers, as evident by the four 1st quarter steals center Robert Miles came up with, and turning those forced turnovers into easy transition buckets.

When a Hurricane player made a 3-pointer to end the Hawks run, the Hawks called a timeout to give the starters a quick breather. The Hawks, leading 19-9 with 1:20 remaining in the 1st quarter, come out of their timeout and drew up a play for point guard Jesse Louie, who took advantage of his smaller defender and drove to the hoop for a layup. The Hurricanes connected on a 2-point jump shot on their next possession. After a Hawk’s miss, guard Aryik Miranda hustled back on defense to come up with an impressive blocked shot in the open court. Miranda’s defensive efforts were rewarded with a made layup on the other side of the ball, putting the Hawks up 23-11. On the following Hurricane possession, Miranda again came up with a timely blocked shot that led to Dontae Jones swishing a 3-pointer as the quarter ending buzzer sounded. Miranda, Louie, and Jones each had 7 points in the opening quarter as the Hawks led 26-11 going into the 2nd quarter.

The Hurricanes refused to be put away early as they came out making shots and went on a 9-0 run of their own in the 2nd quarter. The Hurricane run forced the Hawks to take a timeout with 6:15 remaining in the quarter, leading 26-20. Out of the timeout Miranda found Miles who connected on a 3-pointer to put his team up 29-20. The Hurricanes quickly countered with another 2-point jump shot, but the Hawks inbounded the ball quickly and Miranda again assisted on a Miles basket. Center Robert Miles wouldn’t let his team lose their lead in the 2nd quarter as he scored half his teams points and assisted on the other half in the quarter.

When the halftime buzzer sounds the Hawks had been outscored 12-14 by the Hurricanes in the 2nd quarter, but held a 38-25 lead. Miles and Jones led the Hawks scoring with 10 points each.

“Defensively, we are giving up too many points. We turned the ball over too much, and we are letting them drive right past us and score at the rim. Just relax... settle down and just play basketball. We finished the 2nd quarter okay, but we are not playing to the level we are capable of playing,” proclaimed coach Cyrus “Bubba” Fryberg to his team at halftime. “Let’s have fun out there. There’s no doubt in our minds as coaches that we are going to win this game as long as we stay focused. Let’s regroup and take care of business in the second half.”

The 3rd quarter started out very similar to the 2nd quarter, as the Hawks defense turned lackadaisical and allowed the Hurricanes to get easy point-blank layups. Mid-way through the 3rd quarter the Hawks had only scored 1 point, a Louie free-throw. They were missing their own layups and letting the Hurricane defense off the hook by settling for long-range 3-pointers that were missing. When the Hawks called timeout with 3:40 to go in the quarter they were only leading 39-36 as the Hurricanes were in the midst of an 11-1 run. Out of the timeout Miles assisted on a Miranda 2-point jumper, then moments later forward Willy Enick knocked down an elbow jumper and assisted on a Miles 3-pointer to give the Hawks a 46-40 advantage with one quarter to play. In the 3rd quarter the Hurricanes had again outscored the Hawks 15-8 and limited the Hawks to only three made field-goals.

The Hawks desperately needed to break out of their 7-28 shooting slump they were in over the past two quarters of play if they were going to hold on and claim victory. Jones and Enick scored on consecutive possessions to give the Hawks a 10 point lead, 50-40, to begin the 4th quarter. The Hurricanes made a 3-point shot to cut the lead to 7 points, but only for a few seconds as Jones hit his fourth 3-pointer of the game to push the lead back to 10 points. With just over 3:00 left to play in the game, the Hurricanes called timeout down 10 points. For the Hawks it was going to be a matter of playing solid defense and hitting their free-throws down the stretch to secure the win.

Over the last three minutes of play the Hurricanes did an admirable job of making the Hawks earn the win. The Hurricanes hit a couple 3-pointers to put the pressure on the Hawks players as they were intentionally fouled and sent to the free-throw line. The Hawks went 6-10 on their free-throws down the stretch, including four in a row made by Miranda to ice the win. When the game was over the Hawks had prevailed 70-62.

Louie dishes out 11 assists, while Miles and Miranda combine for 47 points in 76-64 victory over Crosspoint Academy

Article/photos by Micheal Rios

The Tulalip Heritage Hawks (15-5) are right where they want to be; hosting a play-in game for the 1B Tri-District tournament on Saturday afternoon. Their opponent were the Warriors of Crosspoint Academy (7-14). The game was played at Francis J. Sheldon court on February 14.

The 1st quarter played out as a battle of two teams both eager to move on to the next round and play Neah Bay on Tuesday, February 17. Both teams seemingly traded baskets on every possession and scored easily on each other’s defense. There was plenty of ball movement for both teams as they passed the ball until they got the shot they wanted.

For the Hawks, they scored most of their 1st quarter buckets off of the drive and kick game of point guard Jesse Louie and center Robert Miles who combined to dish out eleven assists in the opening quarter. For the Warriors, their offense was primarily based off their guards’ ability to blow by the Hawk defenders and score at pointblank range. At the end of the 1st quarter the Hawks had a 1 point lead, 19-18, and were led in scoring by center Anthony McLean’s 6 points.

The 2nd quarter was a tale of offensive runs by the Hawks. It started with the Hawks going on an 11-4 run to extend their lead to 8 points, 30-22. Guard Dontae Jones and Miles executed a nice two man game on three straight possessions that resulted in back-to-back buckets by Miles and then a Jones 3-pointer. The Warriors called a timeout and then connected on a 3-pointer. The Hawks responded with an 8-1 run, all 8 points were scored by guard Ayrik Miranda as he got hot and hit two 3-pointers and layup. Up 12 points, 38-26, with two minutes before halftime the Hawks finished the quarter strong, going on a 6-0 run as Miranda continued his hot shooting adding 5 points more and Miles chipped in a made free throw. The Hawks outscored the Warriors 25-9 in the 2nd quarter to take a commanding 44-27 lead into halftime.

“Excellent job there defensively down the stretch. We are getting a lot of stops and boxing out way better than the 1st quarter.

Defensively, keep playing hard and forcing them to their left and into bad shots. Keep playing that way and don’t foul,” explained coach Cyrus “Bubba” Fryberg to his Hawk players at halftime. “They are missing a lot of shots and we are getting out and running. They can’t stop our offense. Just keep attacking when the opportunity is there.”

The Hawks listened to their coach and continued to push the tempo at every opportunity in the 2nd half. Louie continued to find his teammates in the right spots and they were knocking down their open shots. The success the Hawks were having executing their offense led to a game high 21 point margin, as the Hawks led the Warriors 66-45 with 6:00 remaining in the game. Moments later the Hawks called a timeout and, with a 21 point lead, inserted reserves Jayden Brashears and Braxtin Lake into the game.

The Warriors kept playing and took advantage of the Hawks having two reserve players in the game down the stretch. The Hawks got outscored 10-19 over the game’s final minutes, but they had built a large enough lead that they were confident they’d secure the win while giving their bench players some minutes. When the final game buzzer sounded the Hawks had won 76-64 and had earned the right to play Neah Bay in the next round of the Tri-District tournament.

“Great job men. You earned the right to play Neah Bay in their gym on Tuesday (February 17). We set that as our goal in the beginning of the season and now that’s where we are headed,” said coach Marlin Fryberg following the Hawks’ victory. “We are right where we want to be. We took care of business defensively and came away with the win today.”

What issues are you concerned about as General Council approaches?

"It's time we find out where we, as a tribe, are financially. Keep hearing stories we are broke, but yet we spend millions on rebuilding areas of the casino. Where does that money come from? Shouldn't be fighting the tribal council to see the budget, those books should be made available to the tribal membership."

Dale Jones, Tribal Elder

"Our people need to learn to come together and not tell tales about other people, but to tell the truth. It hurts me to see how our people treat each other at General Council. It's not a time to chat amongst each other and not pay attention to what's happening on the floor. Be respectful and pay attention."

Katherine Monger
Tribal Elder

"The only concern I have is the candidates who are running. On all their candidacy signs they say they are for the people and a voice for the people, but they never follow through with what they say. They get elected and then they change. I don't like dishonest board members. Be there for the people, listen to us, and let us have a voice. There's no respect, and it seems they all have their own businesses and are not present at board meetings. All board members need to be present at every single board meeting. They shouldn't be allowed to take off when they have a business meeting for our tribe, they need to be there. That really needs to be addressed."

Lois White, Tribal Elder

"I'm interested to see the cost of new construction at the QCC, the Justice Center, and cost of other new projects versus the costs of programs that have been cut, the programs we were told we no longer have the funds for. Interesting to see. They justify cutting programs for the people, social programs like assistance for housing, electricity, and food. Yet, there are new construction projects we are hearing about."

Dawn Simpson, Tribal Elder
